The Accents - singles (= David Gates, guitar, vocals - Leon Russell, piano - Gerald Goodwin, bass - Don Kimmel, drums)

David Gates & The Accents   Jo-Baby/Lovin' At Night   Perspective 121057500   1957

This was the first (hard to find) release

A very worn copy, I know… but I think it's the original release

This is identical to the previous, but I can't help thinking it's so perfect, that it must be a counterfeit…

1458   David Gates & The Accents   Jo-Baby/Lovin' At Night   Robbins 1008 (US)   1958

This was the second release.
1) Leon is providing a steady back ground and a (very) little break here and there. A nice tune, fine singing.
2) Leon is still providing a steady back ground for the voice and a short solo!
David Gates wrote both songs

David Gates & The Accents   Jo-Baby/Teardrops in my heart   Mala 427 (US)   20.3.1961

This was the third release

I don't know if Leon made more recordings with The Accents, but I don't think so.
